FAIR COMMISSION Y. M. C. A. CONCERT HOLDS FIRST MEETING PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Meeting for the first time since their appointment by Governor Frear, the members of the Hawaii Fair Commission, which is composed of H. P. Wood, chairman; John Hughes, C. E. Wright, J. N. S. Williams (who is absent on the mainland), and John Wise, yesterday afternoon organized themselves into a permanent working body. Chairman Wood stated this morning that little could be done by the commission until he had looked into matters on the mainland and made his report, and until definite word is received from Delegate Kalamianote as to an appropriation from the federal government.

It was authorized by the commission that Chairman Wood visit the coast at his earliest convenience and there confer with the Panama-Pacific Exposition officials with regard to Hawaii's exhibit. He was also directed to get into touch with the delegate and find out if there is any possible hope of the government appropriating an additional sum of money for Hawaii's participation in the exposition. It was figured that this work on the part of the chairman would consume at least two months, at the end of which time he should be in a position to make a complete report of his findings to the commission. The chairman may call meetings of the commission whenever he sees fit, but at present little can be done by the commission until the return of the chairman from the mainland.

Harry K. Thaw has made emphatic denial of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's statement that he is the father of her son. They have been absolutely separated for over five years.

An appreciative audience attended the initial concert of the Y. M. C. A. Lyric Mandolin and Guitar Club given in the games hall of the association last night. Notwithstanding the fact that the affair was marred by the noise created by some twenty athletes in the gymnasium below, the concert was a success from the fact that it brought together a lot of good local talent and demonstrated something new locally in the way of a first-class stringed orchestra.

While the orchestra work was fair, the noticeable flaws could easily be remedied by the addition of a few more guitars. Besides the orchestra several soloists including Mrs. Elsa Howard, pianist; Mrs. Charles Hall, vocalist; and Prof. L. A. de Graca, leader of the orchestra, added greatly to the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Hall sang in Italian from Puccini's Boheme and Madame Butterfly, while Mrs. Howard played a number of difficult selections. These principals, with Professor de Graca, formed a trio of musicians difficult to excel. Professor de Graca made his initial appearance before a Honolulu audience and both of his violin selections were warmly endorsed.

The entertainment was more or less an experiment, and the club will now organize itself on a more firm basis and receive a number of new members into its ranks.

ARMY OFFICERS' REQUESTS MUST BE IN PERSON

That President Wilson has decided to put a stop to the practice of army officers applying through influential friends for promotion or transfer to other station, became evident yesterday when a new order from the war department was received at headquarters.

The order stipulates that any communication requesting promotion, assignment, transfer or special detail for any officer, excepting when made by the officer himself in the proper way, will be at once referred to the officer in question, who will be required to state whether the communication was made directly or indirectly through his procurement, or whether or not he avows or disavows the request on his own behalf.

The new order is in line with ex-President Roosevelt's order of March 3, 1909, requiring that all such requests or communications be filed with a note on the officer's record.

$60,000 BUDGET FOR WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

A budget calling for $60,000 to carry on the work of the Young Men's Christian Association during the coming fiscal year was presented by the finance committee to the board of directors of the association which met in the office of the general secretary yesterday afternoon. In company with this was another budget presented by the boys' department, calling for $3500 for carrying on the extension work. Of this amount there remains but $510 yet to be secured. Both budgets were adopted.

Twenty-nine new members were voted into the association by the directors, bringing the total membership to 1252. The report of the treasurer showed that at the end of April there was a balance of $56.14 in the treasury. Thirty-seven religious and Bible study meetings were held during the month under the direction of the religious work committee, while 769 men and boys attended the several gymnasium classes. The directors elected W. H. Heinrichs, now a member of the senior class of Denison University, to fill a vacancy which will occur in the office force during the summer.

Those present at the meeting were R. H. Trent, president; F. C. Atherton, F. D. Lowrey, Ed. Towse, W. G. Hall, G. S. Waterhouse, G. H. Atherton, W. A. Love, R. A. Cooke and General Secretary Super.

SOPRANO REFUSED TUG AT $500 FIGURE

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—When the White Star liner Olympic was well out in the North river and headed down stream on her outward voyage a young woman rushed to the end of the pier and frantically called for a tug to put her aboard the ship.

With her was a tall young man who waved a bundle of yellow backed bills in the air and offered the steamship line's officials $500 for a tug. The woman was Alice Eversham, soprano of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, and the opulent young man was her brother. But there was nothing doing in the line of tugs even at $500 per.

Superintendent Smith explained that the sides of the ship were too high for any woman to climb and that the attempt must not be made.

"But thousands of dollars depends upon my getting aboard," cried Miss Eversham. "I am due in London and Milan, and unless I make this ship I'll miss my engagements and it will be terrible. I'll give any sum to be put aboard. My trunks are there now. Oh, can't some of you do something for me?"

The tug skippers were willing, with the vision of a fat fee, but Captain Smith waved them away.

Numerous combinations of colors were offered for the machine, but the trustees decided without hesitancy that the sparkling solitaires of the millionaire firemen should have appropriate surroundings when the aforesaid firemen responded to alarms. Walter S. Hobart, the clubman and polo player, is still the popular choice for chief of the volunteer department.

TWENTY BLUSHING BRIDES ARRIVE FROM EUROPE

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—Twenty blushing brides ran down the gangplank of the steamship California into the arms of twenty eager bridegrooms. Gladness reigned until the immigration authorities found that eight of the girls did not have papers to prove their identity and told them they could not remain unless they were married first at Ellis island, the immigration detention station.

When the other twelve heard this, they said they would all stand together, and the twenty couples left for the island to find a clergyman.

The prospective brides came from Scotland and Ireland, and the immigration authorities said they were the prettiest as well as largest company that ever came here to be married.

TELLS OF PLOT TO MURDER AMERICANS

[By Latest Mail]

SAN FRANCISCO.—Captain B. F. Hand, a mining engineer, well known up and down the Pacific coast, who is at the Hotel Argonaut, tells a story concerning an alleged federal plot, hatched in Guaymas, to assassinate every American resident of that place on May 12.

"The information was placed in my hands," says Captain Hand, "by a native half-breed, whose purpose in making this disclosure, he said, was a desire to save the life of my son, William, whom he supposed to be engaged in mining work not far from Guaymas. The native who told me about the plot reached this port from Mexico, having journeyed from Guaymas on a tramp freighter. At Guaymas, according to the story he told me, he was employed as bodyguard for federal officials in that city. In this capacity he overheard much not intended for outside ears. The most startling thing he learned, he said was the plot of a coterie of federal leaders to bring about the wholesale assassination of American residents of Guaymas on May 12, one of their saint's days, and thus hasten American intervention."
